

About

The UCSF/John A. Hartford Center of Geriatric Nursing Excellence offers predoctoral and postdoctoral opportunities in geriatric nursing with an emphasis on interdisciplinary research.

- Emphasis on interdisciplinary research in gerontology
- Predoctoral and Postdoctoral scholars in geriatric nursing
- Financial support via scholarships, fellowships, and assistantships in teaching and research
- Located at the University of California, San Francisco, with many funded centers and institutes specializing in geriatric/gerontological research

The UCSF/John A. Hartford Center of Geriatric Nursing Excellence is one of nine founding centers funded by the John A. Hartford Foundation at Schools of Nursing in the United States. Nine Centers were established in January 2001 at the University of California, San Francisco; Oregon Health Sciences University; University of Arkansas; University of Iowa; and the University of Pennsylvania. Four new centers were added in 2008 at the Arizona State University, Pennsylvania State University, University of Minnesota, and the University of Utah. For links to other centers and programs, please visit <http://www.nhcgne.org/membership/member-institutions> [1].

About the John A. Hartford Foundation

The John A. Hartford Foundation, Inc. of New York City is a private philanthropy established in 1929. John A. Hartford and his brother, George, both former chief executives of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, left the bulk of their estates to the Foundation upon their deaths in the 1950s. Since 1979, the Foundation has focused its support on improving the health care system to accommodate the nation's aging population.

Contact Us
UCSF Main Site

© 2013 The Regents of the University of California

Source URL: <https://hcgne.ucsf.edu/about>

Links

[1] <http://www.nhcgne.org/membership/member-institutions>